

After the success of the percussion holidays of the last years we are happy to meet again in 2019 for

12 Years of Drumming Holiday

at Lake Frauensee in Reutte/Tyrol in Austria. Once again we offer classes with Reza Samani, Andrea Piccioni, Sebastian Flaig, Joss Turnbull, Thórralf Schuh.

The one week workshop is a unique opportunity for all those who want to combine their passion for drumming, rhythm and ensemble playing with a holiday in a beautiful landscape.

The participants will discover, learn and practice rhythms on the typical persian instruments Daf and Tombak as well as Frame Drum, Tamburello, Riq, Darabuka, Cajón, and Bodhrán.

Activities

Besides working intensively on our musical skills we will enjoy the location at lake Frauensee. There will be one day without classes to spend individually (meals as usual). You can go hiking (hiking boots recommendable) and explore the authentic nature around the lake, go for a swim or just relax in the sun. At a distance of 4 kilometres the villages Lechaschau and Reutte offer shopping possibilities, train station, taxi service, indoor or open air swimming, sauna, post office, museum of local history, restaurants and cafés. The evenings we will spend with music, singing and dancing, either at the campfire by the lake or in the big group room inside, depending on the weather.

Our seminar house is accessible from Reutte over a 1,5 km paved mountain road; parking by the house or some metres down the road. Transfer from Reutte train station to the seminar house by taxi is possible.
